

Co-sponsored Special Scholarships

The first UF Leonardo Special Scholarship is the LEO-BBT scholarship, co-funded by the Borletti-Buitoni Trust (<https://www.bbtrust.com/>) which focuses on promoting music.

Aim

To develop a summary of current knowledge on the use of music in patients affected by early onset Alzheimer's disease. The review should be a synopsis of existing knowledge, include a knowledge gap analysis, and include a lay-person-friendly list of recommendations for patients and families on how to use music to support their young loved ones affected by Alzheimer's disease.

Value of award: $3000
